Why Bless?

a lament - in memory of Rev Dr Michelle Cook / reflecting on Job 1:21
David MacGregor © 2024 Willow Publishing

♩=80

WITH AD-LIB RESTRAINT

Lyrics:

1. You give. You take. You give. You take. Our hearts are break-ing, shak-ing, deep in pain. Why bless Your name? Why bless Your name? God, one of us has gone. God, please ex-plain. Why? - - - - Why? - - - - Why? - - - - God, why?

2. From womb, You came. To earth's womb we come. God, why the tak-ing? Why, God? Please ex-plain. Life seems un-fair. Is jus-tice a-ny-where? When deep-ly loved are tak-en, fam-'ly all in pain Why? - - - - Why? - - - - Why? - - - - God, why?

3. God, come, re-veal. God, come, be `near. Come, show us hope and light as we re-main. Can we too be love? Can we too be - faith? When all seems so wrong; when nights seem so long, can we too be gent-le with each o-ther; give space, find joy, give grace?

(hummed) Mmm - - - - Mmm - - - Mmm - - - - Mmm - - - - Mmm, mmm.

rit.