Walk the road less travelled

David MacGregor © 2025 Willow Publishing

WITH PURPOSE

1. Called to walk the road less tra- velled. Called to to walk a diff'- rent
2. Called to tra- vel oh so light- ly. Bur- dens need be cast away. Called to walk the steps of Je- sus. Called to walk them ev'- ry day. And side. Called: be o- pen to the Spi- rit. Called to fol- low, trust, a- bide.

of- ten it is tough and far from ea- sy. Al- ways risks a- long the road.
Called to live with deep com- pas- sion in the free- ing love of Christ.

Yet I know God's love is with me; some- thing this world can't e- rode.
See His face there in my neigh- bour. See His love and be His light.

You're my way! You're my truth! Je- sus, You're my life ev'- ry- day. You're my way!

You're my truth! Je- sus, You're my life ev'- ry- day. 3. Called to cast a- side that bag- gage. Fear and wor- ry wear us down. Fall in- to the arms of Je- sus.

God's love's there; where rest is found. Called to dwell with- in God's pre- sence.

Fresh sur- pri- ses 'long the way. Called to walk the road less tra- velled. Life in Je- sus ev'- ry day. Called to walk the road less tra- velled. Life in Je- sus ev'- ry day.
